Tentative Itinerary – continued

Wednesday, September 18:

- Morning Included daily - Breakfast Buffet at our hotel.
- 10am Our theatre week begins with a guided Backstage Tour of the three theatres comprising the adventurous Oregon Shakespeare Festival complex.
- 1:30pm How to begin your Ashland week? Exploring this beautiful town, or attend an Optional Play: How To Catch Creation: West Coast premiere! A black, gay, feminist writer's tender story of love that spans 40 years. In the intimate Thomas Theatre.
- 8pm Mother Road, world premiere of Octavio Solis' epic tale for the 21st Century, inspired by Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath. In the Bowmer Theatre.

Thursday, September 19:

- Morning After breakfast, a very special tour and lunch in a stunning setting at award-winning Dancin Vineyards. Views of Table Rocks, Mt. McLoughlin and the Rogue Valley, while savoring fine wines and a luncheon including artisan wood-fired pizzas. Or, remain in Ashland for a matinee performance of Shakespeare's evergreen comedy, As You Like It, in the Bowmer Theatre.
- 8pm In the Festival's flagship theatre, the outdoor Elizabethan Theatre, tonight's performance - the Bard's chilling tale of unbounded political ambition, Macbeth.

Friday, September 20:

- 10:30am After breakfast, we head for "the Bricks," the patio outside the Festival theatres, where we'll be met by one of the actors we have seen this week, and enjoy a private discussion about the Festival, the play, and an actor's life in the theatre.
- 1:30pm Today, a true story about a groundbreaking and scandalous Yiddish play! Paula Vogel's 2017 Broadway hit, Indecent, explores the 1932 production of Sholem Asch's, The God of Vengeance. In the Bowmer Theatre.
- 8pm Tonight, your choice: "Curiouser and Curiouser!" How do we use our imaginations to make sense of the madness in our world? This new, adult adaptation of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland, brings this classic into our own times. In the Elizabethan Theatre. Or, Cambodian Rock Band - the music of Dengue Fever propels this thrilling tale of a young woman piecing together her family history, 30 years after the Khmer Rouge.

Saturday, September 21:

- 10:30am You be the critic! A discussion of the plays we've seen so far.
- 1:30 Broadway in Ashland! The delightful smash musical hit, Hairspray, is performed for our afternoon enjoyment. In the Bowmer Theatre.
- 8pm The perfect conclusion to our theatre week! The title says it all - All's Well that Ends Well! Shakespeare's comedy traces courtships, class, mistaken identities, pain, loss, war and love. In the Elizabethan Theatre.

Sunday, September 22:

- 9am After breakfast, we board our charter bus for the journey home, lunch at C. R Gibbs American Grille, en route. Arrival San Francisco about 4pm; South Bay about 5pm.

All-inclusive price: $2,749, double occupancy
